MEMORANDUM FOR: CARROLL SQUADRON PERSONNEL
FROM: CARROLL/CC
SUBJECT: ANG Cook Team Support

1. SITUATION

The 175th Services Flight (SVF) is largely deployed overseas. The MD Air National Guard needs Auxiliary support to provide cook services at September drill dates.

2. MISSION

Carroll Squadron will field supplemental cook teams consisting of 8-10 members on December 6 and 7. Drills will begin at the Warfield Air National Guard base at 0800 and will end at approximately 1300.

3. SERVICE SUPPORT

Uniform for the day is BDUs. The MD Air National Guard will provide lunch. Driving Directions to Warfield are as follows:

- Take I-795 to I-695.
- Take I-695 (Baltimore Beltway) East towards Towson.
- Continue East on I-695 through the I-95 interchange (stay on I-695).
- MD Route 702 will fork off to the left (there should be a sign for the Golden Ring Mall or something to that effect).
- From MD Route 702, find the exit to MD Route 150 (Eastern Blvd).
- Take MD Route 150 East for about three miles
- Martin State Airport will be on your right. Continue past the Wilson Point Road (traffic light).
- The entrance to the Warfield Air National Guard base will be on your right at the next traffic light. Inform the Security Police forces who you are (drivers, have your license ready to present - members, have your CAPID cards ready!).
- You will report to the dining hall at the rear entrance. The SP's will show you where, but it's right in front of the gate. You can't miss it.

4. COMMAND & SIGNAL

- a. Project Officer for this event is Maj Christian Ready, Carroll Sq. Commander. Inquiries may be directed to 1st Lt Zabetakis (cadets) or Capt Jarosinski (seniors).
- b. Cadets will indicate availability or unavailability by completing the form below, and return to Deputy Commander for Cadets.
